

BIO of Michael G. Mikurak

Mr. Mikurak was an international consulting partner at Accenture, Plc. where he focused on consulting with Fortune 100 companies in the areas of business strategy and supply chain management. Mr. Mikurak retired from Accenture, Ltd. in 2003 with Founder Partner status (being one of the original company partners who participated in the process of taking the company into the public markets).

Mr. Mikurak has over 30 years of experience in the areas of business strategy and supply chain management. Mr. Mikurak is a graduate of Rider University, Lawrenceville, NJ with B.S. in Business Management and received a Certificate of Completion for “Product Development and Manufacturing Strategy” from Stanford University-Graduate School of Business. Mr. Mikurak is also well known in the international business community. He has been quoted in numerous business publications and other news media. He has written a number of articles published in business periodicals and management books on the subject of business strategy, supply chain management and international business collaboration. He currently holds 10 International Patents that are focused in the areas of business collaboration and e Learning. He currently has co-developed with Raytheon Corp. an additional Provisional Patent identified as: “Virtual Hands-on Learning Method”. This Provisional Intellectual Property Patent focuses on the use of interactive technology, Internet accessed tools and e learning applications, which allows the user to gain practical experience and knowledge via this learning method. It was initially developed in support of current Cyber Security Certification programs. He also as a Managing Member of HEPCO Holdings, LLC shares ownership of 5 US patents focused on the creation and use of PathO3Gen Foot Sanitizing Station in the HealthCare Industry and 1 pending patent for a hand-held device that utilizes the same technology focused on the elimination of infectious diseases

Mr. Mikurak currently resides in Gulfport, FL., with his wife of 25 + years. He has been an active member of the St. Petersburg and Pinellas County Community over the past 16 years, since he moved from New Jersey to this area. Mr. Mikurak is currently a member of the St. Anthony’s Hospital Foundation. He is a Past Board Member of the BayCare Health Systems Board of Trustees and Past Chairman BayCare Health Systems Audit Committee; past member of BayCare Health Systems Financial Committee; He is a Governor appointed member of the Juvenile Welfare Board since 2013 and a member of the St. Petersburg Kiwanis Club Chapter. Currently he is he Chairman of the Board of HEPCO Holdings, LLC and a Managing Director of Green Earth Medical, LLC a division of HEPCO Holdings, LLC.