

Need a Breast Pump?

Having a breast pump can ensure your baby will continue to receive the best nutrition, even while you're at work or unavailable.

During your pregnancy, contact your insurance company to see if a breast pump is covered by your plan. Some insurance providers use the companies and the breast pumps listed.

Zomee Z2

Spectra

Medela Pump in Style

Aeroflow Breast Pumps

Products: Zomee Z2, Medela, and Spectra

AeroflowBreastPumps.com

844-867-9890

Edgepark

Products: Medela and Spectra

Edgepark.com

855-504-2099

Adapt Health Patient Care Solutions

Products: Zomee Z2, Medela, and Spectra

PCS.AdaptHealth.com

844-993-3740

Medela Insurance Concierge

Products: Zomee Z2, Medela, and Spectra

medela.com/en-us/breastfeeding-pumping

800-435-8316

Durable Medical Equipment (DME) providers that supply breast pumps may change each January.

Florida HEALTH
WIC Florida

WIC has limited availability to help breastfeeding clients with pumps. WIC is an equal opportunity employer.

Pinellas WIC Breastfeeding Line
727-824-6997
Call us 7 days a week 9 a.m.-9 p.m.